ASSOCIATED PRESS TO SPONSOR IGO ELECTION OFFICIAL

The Associated Press has been breaking news since it was first created in 1846. Election officials across the United States are most familiar with their part in research and publication of election related news. AP has participated in iGO conferences for years, both as a news gathering agency and often as a participant on an elections division panel.

iGO is proud to partner with AP on this project to provide funding for an election official to attend iGO's Annual Conference in an amount not to exceed $2,500.00.
