

Jing Burgi-Tian

---

Jing Burgi-Tian is the Program Director of International Programs and Certified Public Manager Programs at The George Washington University, Center for Excellence in Public Leadership. Her current work at the Center includes managing two intensive leadership development programs accredited as Certified Public Managers® Programs. She also leads the Center's international initiatives, which includes executive education programs for government officials and private sector managers from China, Uzbekistan and other countries. Prior to joining the Center, Jing was the Assistant to the Executive Director at the United Nations Association of the National Capital Area.

Jing holds a M.S. Ed in Intercultural Communication from The University of Pennsylvania, Graduate School of Education and a B.A. in Economics from Fudan University, Shanghai, China. She is currently working towards her Doctoral degree in Human and Organizational Learning at The George Washington University, Graduate School of Education and Human Development. Her dissertation topic is employee mobility and its role on inter-organizational relationship.

Jing was certified as a facilitator in Net-Mapping methodology, Theory U peer learning circles, and The Leadership Challenge module. She is fluent in English and Mandarin Chinese.