Dawn Gudmunson

Chief Deputy Recorder

Dawn Gudmunson has worked for Nye County for the last 15 years. She is Chief Deputy Recorder for Nye County Recorder's Office. Dawn is based out of Tonopah which is the county seat, but she supervises the Tonopah and Pahrump offices which is a task at times because Nye County is the 3rd largest county by land mass. The offices are about 170 miles apart, so they rely heavily on technology to communicate. She obtained her CPO in Land Records and Records Management at NACRC in December 2016 and then re-certified with IaoGO in 2018. She is the Secretary of the Nevada Recorders Association. She is also an active member of IaoGO and PRIA. She is married and has 3 awesome kids.

Deborah Beatty

Nye County Recorder

Deborah Beatty moved to Nye County in 1994. She had her own business in construction clean up from 1999-2002. Which eventually lead to her working in title and escrow for 5 years. In January 2011 she was elected as the Nye County Recorder. She is finishing up her second term and looks forward to many more years in the Recorders Office. She obtained her CPO in Land Records and Records Management at NACRC in December 2016 and then re-certified with IaoGO in 2018. She has served many roles in the Nevada Recorders Association such as past secretary, past Vice President and current President. She is also the Recorder's Division Chair for IaoGO as well as an active member in PRIA. She has held several offices in the different organizations. She is married and has 5 beautiful daughters and 8 granddaughters 1 grandson and another on the way!
