Brenda D. Forman

Clerk of Courts, Broward County (FL)

Brenda D. Forman was elected to the Broward County Clerk of Circuit and County Court in November 2016. She was sworn in on January 3, 2017, and was the first African American and the first elected female clerk in the history of the Broward County Clerk's office. She studied at Broward College and Union Institute University.

Prior to being elected Clerk, Ms. Forman's work experience included the Broward County Clerk's office, ChildNet, the State Attorney's Office, and CEO and founder of B Dixon Mortgage Company.

Ms. Forman has been an advocate against domestic violence and against human trafficking for several years. She is also a member of the Florida National University (FNU) steering committee that works against human trafficking, domestic violence, and the exploitation of missing children.

She is actively involved in a number of community organizations such as the Broward County Bar Association, the South Broward Bar Association, Kiwanis Club of Davie/W. Hollywood, Broward County Police Chiefs Association, National Council of Negro Women, BCCPA Domestic Violence Committee, Soroptimist International of Davie, Tower Forum, South Florida Noble-Black Law Enforcement, South Broward Board of Realtors, the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, and the B'nai B'rith.
