Matthew Maclean

Kofile Product Manager for California Kofile Technologies, Inc.

matthew.maclean@kofile.us

Matthew is a Pre-sales Engineer and Product Manager for Kofile, responsible for rolling out Kofile's Cloud-based products for the State of California. He has been in the Local Government Records Management sphere since 2008. He has held various roles, from: software development, system implementations, project management through to product management and pre-sales. Prior to that, he implemented a manufacturing and supply chain management system, with large multinational companies such as SC Johnson, Novartis and Reckitt Benkiser, for my employer, for 15 years.
